Alliance, Ohio, July 3, 1919

President Alliance City Council
Alliance, Ohio

Gentlemen:

Lot No. 3948 on West Summit St. has no sidewalk. This is rather a disagreeable condition not only from the point of appearance but from usefulness as well.

May I ask your honorable body to investigate this condition and see that a walk is put in?

Thanking you for the favor I am

Very truly yours,

Joseph Cohen.

The following communication was received and referred to committee on Streets and alleys.

Alliance, Ohio, July 7, 1919

To the Honorable Council of the City of Alliance

Gentlemen:

The portion of Lincoln Avenue which abutts on the south side of Ely Street, not being used for any purpose whatsoever, by the public or by the City of Alliance.

It has occured to me that this would be a splendid location for a Filling Station, for supplying automobiles with gasoline and all other accessories, and will be pleased to have you consider this proposition, and would be pleased to meet with a committee of Council at any time to secure this portion of ground for the purpose of installing a Filling Station and all other automobile accessories.

Yours truly,

Harry Lallement.

The Finance Committee submitted the report recommending the payment of the following bills.

Communication in regard to no sidewalk on West Summit St. in front of Lot 3948.

Communication in regard to securing land on Lincoln Ave. abutting on South side of Ely St. for a Filling Station.
