President Barnard inquired as to what had been done toward the enforcement of the regulations governing the operation of taxis in the city, which Ordinance was passed July 28th. The Mayor stated he just received the required numbers and several delays had been experienced in the acquiring of same. He stated he believed it would be unfair to require the taxi drivers to pay $25 for the one month. He plans to start the business with the new year.

On motion of Jas. G. Miller, Council adjourned.
