The following communication was read and referred to the Sewer Committee.

February 28th, 1920.

City Council,
Alliance, Ohio.

Gentlemen:

We are desirous of enclosing an open storm sewer now crossing a portion of our property just west of Mahoning Avenue and south of Grant Street.

We are willing to pay 50% of the cost of constructing this said storm sewer and it is essential that construction be started in the near future as we contemplate improving and enlarging our plant.

Trusting you will give this your immediate attention, we are

Respectfully,

THE ALLIANCE VITREOUS CHINA CO.

C. T. Brooks, Treas.
