City Council of the City of Alliance, Alliance, Ohio.

Communication from Board of Elections regarding vault

Gentlemen:

An examination of conditions in the quarters set apart for the Board of Elections in the City Hall reveals that the local board--because of congested conditions in the vault--does not have sufficient room to properly take care of the election records of said Board.

In view of this condition, the Board earnestly requests your Honorable Body to set apart for the exclusive use of the Board of Elections, for election purposes, said vault.

We request further that the various Departments in the City Hall that are using said vault be requested to remove their property therefrom.

Sincerely yours,
Emil J. Kauffmann
Clark W. Metzgar
Niles A. Sponseller
Frank A. Zink
Board of Deputy, State Supervisors and Inspectors of Elections, Stark County.
