The minutes of the previous meeting was read and approved.

The following communication was presented to council.

Albany O. Dec 1st 1913
To the Honorable Members of the Albany City Council:
The undersigned petitioner has resided at the northeast corner of Haines Avenue, and Summit St. for the past few years, and has gone to some little expense to improve the locality by maintaining a sidewalk both on Summit St. and Haines Ave. We have been put to considerable inconvenience ever since residing at the above mentioned place on account of the lack of a sidewalk on the north side of Summit St. in front of the third lot east from Haines Avenue. This walk is used by a great many people, who are ~~helped~~ put to inconvenience.

We respectfully request that necessary action be taken to cause a sidewalk to be laid at the point in question.

Very truly Yours
D. H. King.

Nov. 19th 1913

C. O. Silver
City Auditor,

Dear Sir:-

This is in reply to your favor of the 15th inst. asking for bids on the publication of bonds, Notices, Resolutions and Ordinances of a general nature for the City of Alliance.

For the publishing of all straight matter advertising, we beg to quote a price of $1.00 a square for the first insertion and $.50 for each additional insertion of the same ad.

For tabulated matter, the rate would be 50% above that of straight matter.

This price includes the furnishing of copies of the paper containing said ads.

We will also furnish "Proof of Publication" without extra cost when required, provided the Mayor of said city will acknowledge the affidavit without expense to the newspaper.

The above quoted price is the same as the rate established in Section No 6251, of the General Code for legal advertising, which is the same as has been paid in the past.

Hoping to be favored with the contract for legal advertising we are,

Yours Very Truly
The Review Publishing Co.
