The following communication from the Director of Public Service

June 24th 1914
 The Honorable City Council Alliance, O

Dear Sirs:

Referring to the Abe Wise proposition on North^{western} Avenue property, which was referred to me, beg to advise that this property is held by Mr Wise upon an Auditor's deed and he refuses to furnish any abstract or evidence of title for the property. He says that if the city cares to accept this property it must bear all the expense and satisfy itself as to the title and whether or not it cares to accept the proposition.

Yours very truly
 James L. Rickard
 Director of Public Service

Referred to City Solicitor and Judiciary committee The following communication was read to council.

July 6th 1914
 To the Honorable City Council

Gentlemen—

More than a year ago, resolution number 1567 was duly passed by the city council

This resolution provided for the appointment of an equalization board for the purpose of equalizing the assessments made on Vine Street for the paving of the same.

The Council then appointed as this board the following Robert Auld

John F. Myrden, and C. Davidson. who in accordance with instructions given them by the City Council went forward and performed the survey, which occupied three days. For their services the board charged Six Dollars each. The bill for that amount was rendered and filed with the City Auditor, which up to this time has not received the attention of the council.

Will you kindly consider the claim

Very Respectfully submitted

Robert Guise
