Action on foregoing bids

President Bush inquired of the clerk if all bids filed had made in accordance with the specifications. The Clerk reported that the checks accompanying the bids of John Schott were not certified to us required by the specifications, and that the bids of Mr. H. & M. Mcleourt were accompanied by a certified check for $200.00 and according to the specifications there should have been three checks for $100.00 each. Mr. W. S. Hersey of the firm of G. D. & W. S. Hersey being present. Mr. Kay inquired of him whether he was acquainted with the resolution adopted by Council relative to the employment of Home Labor which had been inserted in the advertisement for this work and whether he would be willing to enter into a contract for the construction of Sewers no 4 and 27 in accordance with the terms of the said resolution. Mr. Hersey replied that he had read the notice to Contractors and was aware of the action of Council on the question of employing home labor, but that he would not agree to a contract such as the resolution provided for.
