The Committee on Finance submitted the following report:

Alliance, Ohio, February 13th, 1915.

To the Honorable Council of the City of Alliance, Ohio.

Gentlemen:

Report of Finance Committee
Regarding Communication of
Robert Auld,
J. F. Kryder,
C. C. Davidson.

After reconsidering the communication of Robert Auld, estate of John F. Kryder deceased, and C. C. Davidson, of July 6th and our report of July 20th, 1914, asking compensation for services rendered as equalizers for street assessments, will say that we find that no ordinance was in effect fixing the salary of equalization boards at the time this service was performed and legislation passed at this time would not be retro-active. We therefore would recommend that the Clerk of Council be instructed to advise the above named parties that while we realize the value of these services, we can not legally render compensation.

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. Heidman,
Milo W. Catton,
Chas. E. Barnard.

The report of the Committee was agreed to.
